

On the Green

MARCH 29, 1972

No. 28

JOANNE GREENBERG TO VISIT GALLAUDET

Joanne Greenberg, the author of I Never Promised You a Rose Garden and In this Sign, will speak at the auditorium on April 6 at 8:00 p.m.

Miss Greenberg's latest book, Rites of Passage, is a collection of 12 short stories concerned with the need to communicate. Her characters include the deaf, the family of a deaf person, an isolated farmer, and aging men.

As reviewer, Joyce Carol Oates said: "...she is able through her almost miraculous sense of the complexities of the human predicament to make each person, hopeful or helpless, demonstrate for us a way of surviving."

Published by Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Miss Greenberg's book will be available in the bookstore for $6.95.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

CLERK-TYPIST: Department of Sociology
SECRETARY I: Audiology and Speech
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR: Physical Plant

For further information, contact the Office of Non-Faculty Personnel.

HUGHES MEMORIAL THEATRE'S SPRING PLAY

The Hughes Memorial Theatre will present its spring production, "The Odd Couple," on April 14, 15 and 16.

Produced by Terry Wright and directed by Janet DeLap, the comedy will feature Dean Alexander and Mike White in the lead roles.

Also in the cast are Kaye Peacock, Bob Fisher, George Pehlgrim, Susan Jackson, and Pauline Spanbauer.

Performances Friday and Saturday, April 14 and 15 will be at 8:00 p.m.

and a matinee will be given on Sunday, April 16 at 2:00 p.m. All three shows will be in the Gallaudet College Auditorium.

For ticket reservations, please contact Penny Renner at 6511 or TTY 6477.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK AT GALLAUDET

In commemoration of International Book Year and National Library Week, April 16-22, the Gallaudet Memorial Library plans to show special recognition to faculty members who have written books and periodical articles.

In order to carry out this event, the library must have a complete up-to-date list of faculty publications. All faculty members are asked to submit as soon as possible a list of their published works.

In addition, if anyone has spare copies of his books or reprints of his articles, the library would be delighted to have them donated to the collection.

Tentatively, during National Library Week, the library will display faculty publications and compile and distribute a list of faculty works available in the library.

Consideration is also being given to setting up a permanent display of the works of Gallaudet authors.

NEW FACES ON CAMPUS

The Office of Non-Faculty Personnel has a new receptionist/clerk-typist on board, Mary Cole....Janice Bigelow recently began as a new accounts payable clerk....Cynthia Cocke will be working at audiology and speech on a part-time basis.....Coming to Gallaudet from the Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory, John Hartman began his duties last week as a buyer in purchasing. John's wife Maureen works in the registrar's office.

CONFERENCE TO DETERMINE PROGRAM FOR TRAINING INTERPRETERS OF THE DEAF

Twelve experts in various areas of interpreting will be participating in a conference on "Preparation in the Field of Interpreting" here at Gallaudet from March 28-30.

Co-sponsored by the Registry of Interpreters of the Deaf and the Gallaudet Office of Public Services Programs, the conference will determine the types of training programs needed to meet interpreting demands.

The conference will focus on knowledge and skills essential to interpreting, curricula needs, needs for professional teacher training programs, and consideration for appropriate training institutions.

HR 8395 CONSIDERS UNDERACHIEVING ADULTS

HR 8395, legislation which would establish a national center for under-achieving deaf adults, is now pending in the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, chaired by Senator Harrison Williams. The bill has House approval.

If enacted, this vocational rehabilitation bill will make it possible for more deaf persons to develop skills which would enhance their employment potentials.

The bill, which nearly duplicates a bill introduced some time ago by Senator Wilbur Mills, must also pass through Senator Jennings Randolph's Subcommittee on the Handicapped before going to the Senate floor for debate and final vote.

REACTIONS REQUESTED

The producers of the "Watch Your Child/ The Me Too Show" would like to hear your reactions to their new program.

Featuring a signed interpretation, the show is presented each week day at 1:00 p.m. on Channel 4.

Please address your letters to:

Mr. George Heineman
Vice President of Children's Programming
National Broadcasting Co.
30 Rockefeller Plaza
New York, New York 10020

THIS WEEK'S ANECDOTE

The following telephone conversation took place last Friday between Lee Katz and a member of the Gallaudet post office staff.

---Post Office: We have a letter here addressed to Miss Liz Katz with postage due.

---Lee: Yes, Liz Katz is my daughter. She is a student at MSSD.

---Post Office: Oh, we were unable to locate her there.

---Lee: Well, she is a student there. Anyway, where is the letter from and how much postage is due?

---Post Office: Eight cents is due.... It is from the Public Relations Office!!!!

ON THE GREEN is published each week for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations. Campus news is always welcome. Phone 3326 or TTY 4232.

Judy Bortner, editor

Judy